4.2.1 - Library is automated with digital facilities using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS)

Fr. Gordon Library is fully automated with NewGen Lib software purchased from Verus Solutions Pvt. Ltd. It is a Hyderabad based company. The software supports Digital Library functionality with metadata and interoperability standards and web protocols. NewGenLib is a user friendly Library software that enable a library to manage its housekeeping operations, viz., acquisition of books and other materials, creation and maintenance of its catalogue database, circulation of its holdings, etc. In other words, NewGenLib is a library automation software. It is a Web-based application. Databases created with NewGenLib reside on web servers and can therefore be accessed by any client machine connected to the Internet.

NewGenLib uses well-known and proven international standards: MARC-21, UNICODE, XML and the Dublin Core Metadata Standard. • NewGenLib allows metadata records to have digital attachments and so users have access to these via searchable online public access catalogue (OPAC). It can be used with applications that allow the development of Digital Libraries.

A key advantage of NewGenLib is its ability to integrate metadata records with digital attachments, enhancing the richness of the online public access catalogue (OPAC). Users can easily search for and access digital resources directly through the OPAC interface, facilitating seamless discovery and retrieval of information. Moreover, NewGenLib is compatible with applications that support the development of Digital Libraries, further expanding its utility and versatility.
